Architecture

Responding to unique apartment layouts, privacy requirements and view corridors, the origami folds in the bronze facade regulate the window openings establishing a rhythmic cadence across the facade. With over 8' high, triple paned windows, apartments are flooded with light and views while creating a silent sanctuary within. A panelled "jewel box" lobby defined by a custom Céline Wright light fixture is accessed from White Street. With only seven unique tailored units, 14 White Street is the epitome of Tribeca elegance and refined urban living.
